

Dr. Darryl K. Webster

Sr. Pastor & Men's Spiritual BOOTCAMP Founder

Dr. Darryl K. Webster is a passionate, relevant, biblically sound preacher and teacher. He currently serves as the senior pastor of Emmanuel Missionary Baptist Church and founder and CEO of Emmanuel Preparatory Academy in Indianapolis, Indiana.

He is a graduate of Martin University where he received a Bachelor of Science in Religious Studies, Master of Science in Urban Ministries and an honorary Doctor of Divinity.

Sensitive to God's leading, Dr. Webster accepted his calling to preach in October 1983 and has been faithfully ministering since. Prolific and proficient, Dr. Webster is a well sought after preacher and men's speaker.

Dr. Webster also serves as the founder of Men's BOOTCAMP, a ministry that seeks to disciple men and reconcile them to God, family and the community. Since its inception, BOOTCAMP has successfully ministered to thousands of men and has now expanded to include a component for marriages, singles and youth. BOOTCAMP has been featured on Focus on the Family, C-Span, local media outlets, and in two documentaries. It has received local and national recognition.

Dr. Webster has authored a book entitled "Small Change, Great Impact". He has received numerous awards including the Governor's Civic Leadership Award and a Resolution by the local City County Council.

Dr. Webster is a certified John Maxwell Leadership Coach, certified instructor for Proclaiming the Word Ministries and past adjunct professor for Martin University. He has also served on numerous boards throughout the community.

He has been married to his beautiful wife and ministry partner, Sibyl, for thirty years. They are the proud parents of four children: Quincy, Kristin, Darrin and Kelli. They are the grandparents of the fab five: Jada, Jaida, Cristian, Cameron and Raeghan.

When he is not pastoring, Dr. Webster enjoys spending time with his family, attending sporting events and running.
